

DEAR SIRs:

THIS LETTER IS TO APOLOGIZE TO YOU FOR TAKING SOME PIECES OF ROCK FROM THE FOREST. I AM VERY SORRY, I AM ALSO SORRY THAT I TOLD A LIE TO THE MAN AT THE GATE WHO ASKED ME IF I HAD REMOVED ANYTHING FROM THE PARK. THE THREE PIECES OF ROCK THAT I AM RETURNING ARE ALL THAT I TOOK. I PICKED THEM UP AT THE AGATE BRIDGE AREA. I RATIONALIZED THAT A FEW SMALL PIECES WOULD NOT HURT. I DID NOT SEE THE NOTE ON YOUR BROCHURE ABOUT A "FEW SMALL PIECES" UNTIL I RETURNED HOME AND NOW REALIZE THE EFFECT IF EVERYONE TOOK A "FEW SMALL PIECES."

I CAN ASSURE YOU THAT I HAVE BEEN SMITTEN OF CONSCIENCE SINCE I RETURNED HOME AND INSTEAD OF PLEASANT MEMORIES OF YOUR PARK, I FEEL GUILTY. SO, AGAIN, I AM VERY SORRY, AS FAR AS I KNOW, NOTHING LIKE THIS HAS EVER HAPPENED TO ME BEFORE AND I ASSURE YOU THAT IT WILL NOT AGAIN. I HOPE YOU UNDERSTAND.

SINCERELY,

A GUILTY TRAVELLER

To Whom it may Concern:

While on vacation this summer we toured through the beautiful Petrified Forest National Park.

Upon leaving my husband ~~took these pieces~~ enclosed with him as souvenirs; ~~now after all the bad luck~~ we have had I am returning them where they belong.

Upon returning home we first found out that my step mother had kidney failure, then our dog died, our central air conditioning went out and our freezer. I had a really close call in having a bad auto accident, our truck broke down needing major repairs our cat was killed and last night close by our home a gas well blew out a cap causing us to be evacuated from our home a while.

So Please take these pieces back before we have any more bad luck and except our deepest apologize.

Dear Sirs:

When I got back to my hotel after visiting The Petrified Forest, I found The enclosed piece of petrified wood in the car. Since it is not polished, I have to assume that, despite my efforts to explain why nothing should be removed from the park, one of my children must have made the sad mistake of picking it up.

My sincere apologies.

Dear People,

We visited the Petrified Forest National Park about ten days ago. On our way home, when we reached Needles, my six year old announced that a small rock was stuck in the heel of his decrepid cowboy boots. He thought it came from the petrified forest, but it could just as well have been embedded in the Grand Canyon or near the Meteor Crator. I can't tell if it is petrified wood, but just in case, I'm sending it back.

After all, one can't be too careful.

Sincerely,

Dean

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed piece of petrified rock was taken from your park over 30 years ago. I've always kept in a clean glass showcase as a souvenir of the petrified forest. It never dawned on me that the rock was like the Lava rock in Hawaii which is sacred. By chance, I found that information in a magazine.

To Whom it may concern:

Enclosed you will find a few small pieces of petrified wood that I thoughtlessly took while there in the park this past August. Call it superstition or whatever but I feel that it belongs there and nowhere else.

I am now writing a paper on Indian rock paintings and realize that the removal of these pieces goes against the Indians' sense of oneness and harmony with their surroundings. I would very much like to return them to the spot personally but I don't know when I'll be through that way again. So I would appreciate it if you would return them to the very spot from where they came: By the Puerco Indian ruins. If you were to walk up from the lowest rock paintings it would be between the rocks and the two pueblo ruins would be appx. one hundred yards ahead on both sides. There is one small piece of wood embedded there with loose pieces all around, these pieces enclosed were among them.

I hope that you will return them to the same spot and not just anywhere in the park (call it superstition I guess)

Thank you for putting up with things like this and I want you to know that I admire the work that you people are doing in the cause of conservation.

Signed,
One of many

I took these stones when I was there in August on my vacation, and since I've been home as of this day, had nothing but bad luck.

1. I brought a beautiful vase from Mexico my daughter broke it.
2. a couple of weeks later my dog was killed by an automobile instantly.
3. I found out my sister-in-law is dying of Leukemia
4. and now my cat was just killed, by the dogs next door.

So take this Petrified Wood or Stone what ever you call it and keep the bad luck there, I was fine until I brought them into my home.

dear sir,

I am writing this letter in hopes of easing my conscience and saving the most important thing of my life, my marriage. Against my better judgement, I removed three rocks which my husband discovered hidden in my brasieres. Since then, being a true christian, he has constantly told me of my wrong doing. I'm afraid that our marriage is on the rocks. I want all of my eight children to see your park in the same condition that I saw it in.

I am keeping one rock to ~~me~~ remind me of the lesson I learned the hard way. I am enclosing twenty cents for you to buy another rock to replace the one I am keeping as a token of my guilt. I would appreciate it if you would buy one to replace the other very much. It would so ease my burdened conscience. also enclosed are the other two rocks.

please forgive me, and keep up the good work. Thank you

DEAR MR. TRAVER:

I BELIEVE THIS IS YOURS. MY UNCLE SERVED IN THE U.S. ARMY IN CALIFORNIA IN THE EARLY 1950s. APPARENTLY HE VISITED THE PETRIFIED FOREST ON HIS TRIP HOME TO INDIANA. WHILE THERE, HE "COLLECTED" THIS SPECIMEN AS A SOUVENIR. MY GRANDMOTHER USED IT AS A DOOR STOP FOR MANY YEARS. FOLLOWING HER PASSING, MY MOTHER TOOK POSSESSION AND DISPLAYED IT IN HER HOME AS A CURIO. I DON'T REMEMBER WHEN I ACTUALLY CAME IN TO POSSESSION BUT FOR MANY YEARS IT HAS SIT ON MY DESK. I AM BEGINNING TO GET RED OF THINGS I DON'T NEED. I THOUGHT THE BEST THING TO DO WITH THIS PIECE OF HISTORY WAS TO RETURN IT TO IT'S PLACE OF ORIGIN. I HOPE THIS "SQUARES" MY FAMILY WITH YOUR PARK.

Dear Park Rangers,

Many, many moons ago, when I was just a small tot, I visited your beautiful park with my parents. I remember being amazed with your "rock-trees" and all the petrified wood. So amazed that like many small tots, I wanted a piece to take home with me! Even though it was in violation of the law of the land, my parents allowed me to take a sample and smuggle it out of the park's premises. I felt guilty for a few days but the guilt went away. I kept this piece for many years.

Then one day recently I returned to your beautiful park with my bride as a trip for our honeymoon. We were both quite impressed with your park even though we were no longer tiny tots. Nature is impressive, isn't she! Anyway we saw the museum and all the letters from people who have returned rocks which they appropriated! The guilt returned and we resolved to return our rock to its rightful spawning ground to be on display for others to enjoy. Please accept my apology for depriving the park (temporarily) of this specimen.

Sincerely and with feeling,

ABOUT 50 YEARS AGO A PAIR OF NEWLY NATIONALIZED, NEWLY MARRIED, EX-CANADIAN CITIZENS SET OFF ACROSS THIS GREAT COUNTRY ON A HONEYMOON TRIP. AS YOU CAN GUESS FROM THE CONTENTS OF THIS MAILER THEY STOPPED AT THE PETRIFIED FOREST NATIONAL PARK. MY GRANDMOTHER COULD NOT RESIST THE URGE TO BRING BACK A FEW SOUVENIRS. AS THEY EXITED THE PARK, THE GUARD FLAGGED THEIR CAR DOWN AND THE SOUVENIRS FOUND THEIR WAY INTO MY GRANDMOTHER'S CLEAVAGE. THE GUARD HAD MERELY WANTED THEM TO POST A LETTER IN GALLUP. OVER THE YEARS THE STORY OF THEIR 'CLOSE ENCOUNTER' IN THE PETRIFIED FOREST WAS TOLD MANY TIMES BUT THE SOUVENIRS WERE NEVER TO BE FOUND.

RECENTLY, AT MY GRANDPARENTS 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY, MY FATHER READ A GAG TELEGRAM FROM THE OLD GUARD AT THE EXIT OF THE PARK --

"DON'T WORRY STOP ALL IS FORGIVEN

STOP JUST BRING BACK THE 'HOT ROCKS' STOP"

A FEW WEEKS LATER. A LETTER ARRIVED BEARING NOTHING LESS THAN THE 'HOT ROCKS' WRAPPED UP IN SOME PAPER TOWELS. NOTHING HAS EVER BEEN MENTIONED, BUT I SUSPECT THAT THEY WANTED THEM RETURNED TO THE ORIGINAL OWNERS - THE PEOPLE OF A COUNTRY THAT HAS BEEN VERY GOOD TO THEM.

My parents visited there last summer and my mother purchased 3 petrified rocks. During that trip, my father picked one up from the grounds.

Since that time, my father has lost his dad to cancer and my mother has had surgery for cancer. We have just found out my father has cancer of the brain and cancer of the lungs (he never smoked in his life). My mother feels the rock he took has brought bad luck on our family therefore, she has requested that I return all 4 rocks.

Please see that they are replaced where they rightfully belong.

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed is a piece of rock I picked up at the Newspaper Rock stop of the tour of the Petrified forrest. Since I gave my heart to the Lord and have been living right I have to return this and ask you to forgive me for taking it ~~and~~ for in so doing breaking the law of the land and God's law. The Devil had such a hold on me I only took it for the sake of doing it as you can see it is not a very pretty stone or of much worth; I just had the habit of stealing but thank God he has saved me from this and I don't want anything to come between us or to go back in sin again and be worse than before. Besides this stone there was a sorig of pine with a cone of seeds I remember taking but I cant put it back on the tree but ask you to forgive me for both.

I am at your mercy for when I did it I knew there was a fine but like I say I was not a christian and if you think I should pay a fine or go to orison I am at your mercy and you have my address. Please forgive me and you can be sure it will not happen again. Will be waiting to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Sherrodsville, Ohio

Dear Sirs,

While driving through your park, we drove over this piece of wood... and got a Plat! We kept it but now realize it should be returned.

You have an

Six plus one aged, lovely desert angel lass two were guarded, and five were not;
He thought it could matter not less,
so their places of birth he soon forgot.

And now, he offers them all freely back,
the debt he gladly pays, five for two;
he ask the spirits to return kind luck,
remove the shadows and take away his rue.

To all,

since I took these pieces of wood from the forest it seems my life has gone down hill ever since. No matter how hard I try to make things right. I've been in jail most of the time, since I've been to the forest and my poor wife, who I dearly love, is ready to give birth to our third child. I hope by returning these pieces of wood my life will straighten out and go the way my wife and I want it to. I truly believe it will. If it does my wife and three children will be back to read this letter and see these pieces of wood in your case.

I know this is the answer.

P.S. I'm sure my wife will feel the same as I do. Right now she's at home and I'm in my cell living here.

Dear Sir/Madam:

Please accept these four pieces of petrified wood. I surreptitiously removed them from the Park in 1964 when I was thirteen years old.

I am very sorry to have contributed to the pilferage which has made it necessary to limit access to the Park.

My youthful enthusiasm for a souvenir and my selfishness exceeded my understanding of the Park's limited resource.

I hope other tourist who removed wood from the park will return their "souvenirs" as I have done.

Thank you.

Verona 28 March 1987

In the April '86 I was going across the Petrified Forest with my wife. It was about the end of the afternoon and because of a late hour I took away some stones to give to our geologist son.

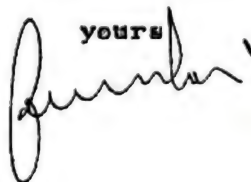

When in August my daughter came back from a working opportunity in USA, she told me of a curse of the taken away Petrified Forest' stones.

Therefore after my return from Usa I've lost money in the Stock Exchange, my job was taken off and my shop was closed, my daughter went to the hospital for a long time with a broken tendon of the knee and is waiting for a surgical transplantation, my dear aunt is still in the hospital with a broken femur from December and last but not least I fell ill of a cancer and suffered 4 surgical operations.

Now I send you the stones and I hope that my unlucky story finishes and tell the people taking away the stones to do not it.

I hope to be healthful in the next years and to be able to visit the Petrified Forest once more in the future.

Please excuse my foolishness. Many thanks and greetings

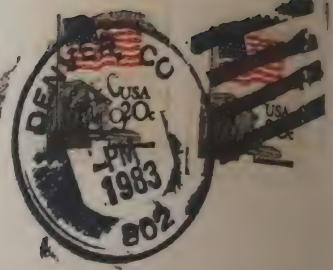

yours

WELCOME LETTER 019

Dear Sir:

This is a hard note to write. It's not easy to admit an error even after nearly 15 years. About 1959 or 1960 my family was touring the west from South Carolina - I was in school at the time. We spent a morning at the petrified forest. In spite of your signs I took a piece of petrified wood (enclosed).

While cleaning out I ran across it and decided to return it. Taking it was wrong and I'm sorry I took it. This sample would make it impossible for me to honestly teach my children how wrong it is to take what isn't yours. Hence, I must return it.

Someday I may be able to return to your national monument - with a much better attitude. I am in the Air Force stationed in New Mexico.

Dear Park Ranger:

Many years ago my boyfriend stole this petrified wood from your monument. I've always felt guilty that I didn't stop him - which I probably could have.

My brother-in-law has been kind enough to return them to you as he drives through Arizona. Please accept them with my deepest apologies.

Thank you,
Sincerely

P.S. I dumped my boyfriend not too long after that!

1. BEFORE MY VACATION WAS OVER MY BRIFCASE AND ITS CONTENTS WERE STOLEN FROM MY CAR.
2. THEN MY WIFE WAS FORCED TO RETURN TO THE FAR EAST TO DEAL WITH AN EMBEZZLEMENT IN HER BUSINESS.
3. AFTER THAT, MY HOUSE WAS BURGLARIZED. I LOST ALL MY ~~HARD~~ EARNED POSSESSIONS. I HAD NO INSURANCE.
4. TO TOP IT OFF, MY BROTHER IS BEING SUED, AND THE PROPERTY WE OWN JOINTLY HAS TO BE SOLD QUICKLY AT A TREMENDOUS LOSS.

CONSCIENCE LETTER 322 1/28/85—

To whom it may concern;

I was at your park in the winter of '82, I was so excited that I could be a part of something that took place millions of years ago so needless to say I took some of the pieces that I had found. I just couldn't believe what I had read about the bad luck it just didn't seem real that just because you took something like that it could cause bad luck. Well, I don't know if that's the reason for my bad luck or not but I know it doesn't belong to me so I'm sending it back. I gave a small piece to my granddaughter to take to school for show + tell and she lost it. This is all

I have left. I hope you can for give me for being dishonest.
I've already ask God ~~for~~ to
for give me and the other thing for me to do is send back what I took. Please for give me.

Sir or Madam:

About ten days ago while we were touring the Petrified Forest, we found the enclosed rocks in the Crystal Forest area. The rocks were very appealing, and in a moment of exhuberance we took the rocks with us as a memento of our trip.

We realize now that this was the wrong thing to do, and we exercised a bit of bad judgment in our decision. Accordingly, we are returning the rocks to the park, and we ask that they be returned to the Crystal Forest area.

We sincerely apologise for removing the rocks.

Dear Sir/ Madame

In December 1994 my family and I took a trip to New Mexico to stay with family over the Christmas period. As part of our trip we visited The Petrified Forest. As far as I can remember it was fantastic, but at the time I was a grumpy teenage girl. I remember coming into the visitor centre and seeing all the letters from visitors who had picked up pieces of the Petrified wood, although encouraged by yourselves not to, and the reams of letters describing the bad luck that fell upon them after taking the pieces of wood.

I can't say I've had bad luck, I believe you make your own, but I do believe in Karma, and after nearly 20 years I want to return these two pieces back to you. I felt quite the rebel picking these up and putting them in my pocket, but hindsight is a wonderful thing, and I want to right the wrongs.

Please accept my apologies and the safe return of two pieces of Petrified wood.

Hopefully I will be able to visit the National Park at some point very soon

Kind regards

Charley
